

Please do not change the current rules. There is already too much concentration of ownership of the media. We need a competitive free press to help preserve our constitutional rights.